A SYNAGOGUE.

Ellen C. Philbrook Writes of An Interesting Service.

Mrs. Ellen C. Philbrook, who is now visiting in Augusta, Maine, stopped on her way there to visit with friends in Washington, D. C. The following letter from her concerning her stay in the national capital will be of interest to the general public as well as to her many personal friends in the city, and especially to the members of the Woman's club. The letter follows.

EDITOR HERALD:—I have been wanting to see or hear something, or go some where that every one has not seen, heard or visited before writing. You know that is very hard in these days of much travel.

"However, I did see and hear, while in Washington, something which is not ordinarily seen and heard by the average traveler.

"It was soon after I reached Washington, that my cousin asked me one Friday evening, at dinner, if I would like to go to the Synagogue of the Orthodox Jews? Of course, I was more than willing. This synagogue has recently been built. It is, in front, of a fine granite, which in a non-manufacturing, non-smoky town, like Washington, retains its sparkling whiteness for years.

THE BUILDING.

"There are two massive square towers one at each corner with an arched center between them, in which are the entrance doors. The interior is very large, resembling our own churches, but not particularly ornate. Indeed, you would think you were in a rather plain Methodist church. One thing, however, is quite noticeable—the repetition of the number seven. For instance, the electric jets are in groups of seven, and seven seems to be the key note in many of the mural decorations and emblems on the windows. There is a raised platform upon which stands a plain reading desk. Behind the desk is a curtain, with an inscription in Hebrew and some emblematic decorations of Deborah.

"I am sorry I cannot translate the Hebrew.

ROLL OF THE LAW.

"Behind this curtain is kept the roll of the law. This roll of the law is usually brought forth with quite a ceremony and read, but this evening was not. There is a balcony running the length of the sides and over the entrance. In the rear balcony is the organ. Here sits the choir, which consists of three sopranos, three altos, one bass and one tenor. Upon the platform back and to the right of the Rabbi, is a chair, similar to one reading chair, occupied by a man who seems to start the responses when the congregation responds in the service. The Rabbi opened the service by prayer, being a description of praise to God. It was a responsive service by the congregation, most of it in English, but some in Hebrew. Then a reading of the Psalms in Hebrew—no not a reading, but chanting in a melodious way with the choir. The Rabbi, himself, possessed a voice of no mean power.

"All the music, and there was a great deal, was sublime. No other word can express it at all, as it rolled out and up, sung by the eight magnificent voices of the choir. I held my breath and trembled.

"In the midst of the service there seemed to be a memorial service for the dead. This was in Hebrew and I noticed from my seat in the balcony that all persons dressed in mourning in the congregation, rose and took part in it.

"Much that I saw and heard I understood not. I could not ask for Mr. Baker was not acquainted with any one present. Mr. Baker said the services were different from any he had attended before. He offered words for the music.

"The service was not a church. There was no sermon. All of it was solemn and impressive. The music echoes still in my ears and thrills my heart. Just at this time I was reading Himmelman's History of the Jews. The number of the Shakespeare class will understand why and how glad I was to attend this service.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWER.

"I had the great pleasure of seeing the Magnolia Grandiflora in blossom. The leaves of the tree are intensely dark green, long oval shaped leaves with smooth edges, glossy and polished and thick as thin leather, which they much resemble. When the tree is in bud it looks as though covered with large, very large rose eggs.

"There are no sepals, the petals are large, thick and cream white, nine in clusters of three overlapping in the bud. When open the flower is as large as a tea plate and exudes a delicious perfume. Many of the trees were buzzing with honey bees.

"The Tulip tree was new to me, but I did not succeed in getting a blossom. They are also unique and handsome."

I have another experience to tell you. This letter, however, is too long now. I greatly fear I shall never make a successful newspaper correspondent. Kindest regards to every one. Yours truly, ELLEN C. PHILBROOK.

June 24, 1901, 37 Stone street, Augusta, Maine.

Read it in His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of Dayton Volkmann. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for Lane back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though both anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. "This valuable liniment is for sale by all druggists."

GREATEST REMOVAL

The Greatest Event in the History of Dry Goods in Decatur.

We have leased the room No. 151 N. Water street and will occupy the basement, first and second floors, on about August 1st. The room is being remodeled for us and will make one of the prettiest dry goods rooms in Decatur when completed. We don't want to move a dollars worth of our present stock and have decided to sell some lots for one-fourth their value, some one-half and some goods we will nearly give away. Every article must be sold regardless of what it cost. We will price the goods at such low prices that you can't afford to not buy. If you need the goods, all right; if not it will pay you to lay them away until you do. See the marvelous reductions we are offering in all departments. If you haven't the money, borrow it as we save 25 to 50 per cent. on all purchases. A sale which makes your dimes do the work of quarters.

ORGAN FAREWELL.

Special Musical Program at the Baptist Church.

There will be a special musical service at the Baptist church this evening in the nature of a farewell to the old organ, which has served the congregation for so many years and which in the near future will be taken down and shipped to parties in Waverly, to whom it has been sold.

The program will include a number of old hymns which are peculiarly associated with the history of the organ rendered by a choir composed of persons who have sung at the church at different times from the early days of the organ down. The regular choir will give several selections assisted by Mrs. Ed Wilson, Miss Cordelia Williams and Mrs. L. O. Hunt of the First Methodist choir.

Following is the program:

Organ Voluntary—Silent Devotion.

Hymn.

Solo—The Ninety and Nine, Company Mrs. Bunn.

Scripture lesson.

Hymn.

Responsive reading.

Hymn.

The Lord is My Guide, Schubert, Mrs. Bunn, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Williams and Miss Stephens.

Hymn.

Prayer—response.

How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me, Nettek, Miss Stephens.

Hymn.

Offertory.

As Sleep Takes Flight, Shelley, Mrs. Hunt.

Hymn.

Notices.

Died—Love Divine, Sudds, Mrs. Bunn and Mr. Kopier.

Come Unto Me, Tebbis, the choir. So piano obligato by Mrs. Hunt.

Hymn.

Benediction.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY

Millikin's Bank Has Been So Designated by Washington Officials.

The Millikin National bank is now a United States depository. The government has so declared it and in the future Uncle Sam will keep a large wad of his cash in this great financial institution.

Mr. Gorin stated Saturday night that from $200,000 to $300,000 would be added to the money in Decatur under this decision of the government. The money will be a portion of the revenue collected by Mr. Mills. The total collections of the district aggregate about nine million dollars a year. Most of this money goes to Washington, but a few banks in the district, at Springfield and now at Decatur, are designated as depositories and portions of the money kept there.

The Millikin bank will be used as extensively as the one at Springfield. In recognizing this bank the government recognizes what the people of Central Illinois have long known, that it is one of the solid banks of the state. There is none better outside of Chicago or in that city, for that matter, for the Millikin bank is just as strong in proportion as the biggest institution in the country.

FELL IN FRONT OF CAR.

Five Year Old Boy Narrowly Escaped Being Run Over.

Saturday afternoon as the 5:30 car on the North Water street was coming up town with a crowd from the ball game, a woman started across the track ahead of the car at a point near Marquette street. She had with her a little boy about 5 years old. The car was closed and after she had started to cross she changed her mind and backed off the track. The child had gotten across and in attempting to return to her fell between the rails when the car was not more than 50 feet distant. The motor man screwed up the brake and stopped the car within a couple feet of where the boy fell, but several men jumped from the car and caught the youngster off the track in time to have saved him any now. The car was not moving very rapidly but had a trailer which made it difficult to stop.

Meeting.

NOTABLE EXPERIMENTS.

Agricultural Department Doing Some Wonderful Things With Corn.

Experiments are being conducted at the agricultural department with a view to increasing and doubling, if possible, the corn crop of this country without additional expense or labor and without even increasing the area now under cultivation. These experiments are being made by Herbert J. Webber, under the supervision of Professor Galloway, chief of the plant division and consist of cross breeding, from which wonderful results are expected, demonstrating to the farmers the great importance of selecting only the best stock for planting.

By the cross breeding process the nitrogen contents of the corn will be increased, and the care in selecting stock for planting will be instrumental in bringing about a tremendous yield. Already 10,000 specimens of hybrids have been grown, and some of these are promising, although it will be nearly two years before practical demonstration can be given, and not until that time will the department be in a position to furnish samples.

The department, however, is prepared to give some wholesome advice to the farmers with regard to producing an increased yield next year. In a general way this advice is to select proper seed for planting, which have yielding qualities. The way to make these selections is to go through the corn fields during the fall and choose the best stalks. Of course proper methods of cultivation must be employed. It is said that not one farmer in 10,000 does this. They generally go to the corn field and select the largest ear to be found. While stalks of this kind may produce large ears, they do not increase the yield nor improve the quality of the corn.

Farmers of the corn producing sections of the west will have their pockets lined with the yellow metal if they follow the advice of the department, according to these experts, as it would not be extraordinary if each ear produced from fifty to seventy-five bushels by adopting the methods recommended by the department. Texas would become the richest corn producing state in this country. That state now has more ground planted in corn than any other state in the Union, but in proportion to the acreage under cultivation the yield is the smallest, averaging only eight bushels to the acre.

It is possible to increase this yield to at least an average of thirty-five bushels to the acre. From the extremely low yield of Texas this department points to an extraordinary one in North Carolina, where 300 bushels an acre were produced. This is not an average yield, but an exceptional case cited to show what wonderful results can be attained under the most favorable and scientific conditions. Large increases in the production can be brought about under ordinary and existing circumstances, but when crops are harvested which are grown from the best seed, a superior quality of corn and a much increased crop can be expected.

Among the 10,000 hybrids are 200 new and distinct varieties. Nothing like them has ever been produced, and Secretary Wilson is expecting great results. Tests will be made to determine which of the hybrids will produce the best crops, when samples will be sent throughout the country to let the farmers see for themselves what the department has accomplished for their benefit.

MACON.

Fred Lawley has just returned from Crowley, La. He reports all the Macon county people are doing well. The prospect for a fine rice crop is flattering. Ants of every description, roaches and mosquitoes were very abundant. Mr. Lawley has secured employment with the Wabash railroad and will go east in a few days.

Clarence Nattel has just returned from a three weeks' trip in Louisiana and Texas, whether he went to make an investment in more rice lands.

In the early part of the week Nathan Carr moved with his family to Decatur where he expects to make his future home. Mr. Carr has lived just west of Macon for a great many years and we are sorry to have him move from our midst.

Rev. J. E. Durham has been on the sick list for nearly two weeks as a consequence there was no preaching service at the M. E. church last Sabbath morning. On account of Mr. Durham's illness the union services were changed from the Presbyterian church to the M. E. and Rev. R. L. MacWhorter preached in Mr. Durham's place.

Rev. R. L. MacWhorter was called to Decatur to officiate at the wedding of J. P. Thimner and Miss Lulu May Zolters on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davidson, Mrs. J. R. Black, Mrs. Shaw and Master Kilo MacWhorter were also present at the wedding from Macon.

ground, one morning, was literally covered with birds of all descriptions. There were many that had never been seen in this section of the country. Some of them were killed outright by flying against the towers, and other were only shocked. Even wild ducks were picked up. The birds, apparently, soon got used to the lights, for they never fly into them now adays.

RAILROAD NEWS

The Possible Consolidation of the Gould Lines in the Southwest.

WORK CAPACITY OF RAMSEY

Heads of Departments Must Be Well Pecked—To Get More Force
—General News.

A telegram from New York says: George J. Gould, it is stated on trustworthy authority, will soon resign the presidency of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain companies. Mr. Gould is expected to become chairman of the boards of directors of all the Gould roads, including the Texas lines and the Deaver and Rio Grande. He has long contemplated this step and it may be taken this summer.

Mr. Gould is now president of the Missouri Pacific the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern; the Texas and Pacific, and the International and Great Northern. At the recent organization of the Denver and Rio Grande he was elected chairman of the board of directors of that company. His brother, Edwin, is president of the Cotton Belt, or St. Louis Southwestern, and his brother, Howard and Frank, are members of the boards of nearly all the Gould properties. The general plan would appear to be to elevate the general managers of the western and southwestern lines to the office of president, giving them full authority over all matters of operation. All financial affairs would continue to be directed from the New York offices.

There is a growing belief that Joseph Ramsey will be chosen president of more than the Wabash system and that he will be the executive head of the Gould systems entire. It is well known that the money influences which control the Wabash and the other lines in which the Goulds are interested, have almost unlimited confidence in Mr. Ramsey. It might be added, too, that his management of Wabash affairs has justified that confidence. The heads of departments on the Wabash have more times than once been almost amazed by the capacity for detail possessed by Mr.
Ramsey. In car building and locomotive building he is apparently as familiar as he is with truck building and the latter is his trade, for he is a civil engineer and has done construction work.
When the heads of the department go to him with suggestions they find that the general manager has a full knowledge of the comparative values of no out of appliances controlled by patents, but which the railroad companies are compelled to use. The head of a department to be up to the situation must be well informed else the general manager will ask him some question which he cannot answer and on which the general manager is well informed. Heads of Wabash departments do not on the quiet criticize the general manager as is often the case. On the contrary they have a most wholesome respect for the great fund of knowledge he has.

FOR MORE PRESSURE.

Saturday Section Foreman Dan Mc-Namara had force of men tearing up the platform on the west side of the old Central station. It is the intention of the Central company to put in a new supply pipe from Eldorado street north to the tank at the Wabash crossing. The old pipe is only three inches in diameter and the new one will be four inches.
In addition to putting in a larger supply pipe the tank will be elevated eight feet. This increased elevation is for the purpose of giving greater pressure to the water on its way to the standpipe and will make it possible to fill engine tanks in a shorter time.

A REMINDER.

Saturday iron cuspidors were placed about the concrete pavement at the Wabash station. Sometime ago the station-master made that Supt. Robertson would issue an order prohibiting spitting on the concrete walk. The placing of these cuspidors is a gentle hint of what is coming. Anti-spitting signs are to be put up in a few days.

WHAT IT COSTS.

The railroad companies furnish each passenger conductor with a train box and the box is equipped with a lot of printed blanks, tickets, pencils, flags and many articles that the conductor is called upon to use. Saturday a discussion was started about the cost of equipping these boxes and to settle the dispute a schedule of its contents and the cost was made and the fact demonstrated that each box costs the company $37.50.

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS.

Out of Chicago for Palos Park to-day the Wabash will have two excursion trains for the benefit of the Austrian-Bavarian society. In the first train there will be ten coaches and a baggage car and in the second train nine coaches.
Trainmaster J. W. Evans went to Chicago last night to look after the movement of these trains.

GETTING BIDS.

The chief engineer of the Wabash system is receiving bids for construction work of ten miles of new railway from Pittsburg to a point beyond Brownburg. The Pittsburg Gazette says the Wabash interests have adopted the plan of going ahead with the preliminaries without waiting for the council to act, and if the council takes no definite action meantime it is proposed to go ahead with construction work as soon as contracts can be let, and thereby place the railroad interests in position to meet possible opposition from any interest that may be adverse to its plans.

DECLINED.

A meeting was held Friday morning at General Manager Schuff and Supt.

Van Winkle and representatives of the engineers, firemen and conductors.
The employees asked that they be allowed pay for actual time consumed, together with mileage, while unloading crushed stone or "chat" on the bottom between East St. Louis and Brooklyn.
The conference lasted about two hours and Mr. Schuff decided that he could not grant the request of the men. The meeting was a pleasant one and the men, while disappointed, decided to accept the decision in good spirit.—Mattoon Journal.
A BIG JUMP.

From $1.10 for a day's wages to a salary of $30,000 a year is a very wide stretch, but it was accomplished Thursday, when the board of directors of the American Car and Foundry company elected Frederick H. Eaton president of the company and fixed his salary at the amount last stated. Eighteen years ago Eaton, a boy of 17, fresh from school, went into the rolling mill of the Jackson & Woodly Manufacturing company at Berwick, Pa., as a laborer at the first named figure.

The old frame building formerly used as an office by the Pacific express company has been sold. Men were busy Saturday tearing it down to move it away.

The Wabash pay car returned to St.
Louis Saturday, Paymaster Harris having finished the work of paying the employees on the system.

The Illinois Central has a new time card to-day.

J. E. Funderburk, formerly an extra conductor on the Wabash, has taken a position as switchman in the local yards of that company.

Conductor Jack Knight of the Peoria division of the Illinois Central is at Duquoin to attend the funeral of his niece.
During his absence Conductor Bromley is on the passenger run.

Firemen Nicols, McGlumphy and Phillips of the Wabash were marked ill yesterday.

Engineers John Harry and Tom Owens are taking a short vacation.

Engineer Andy Johann of the Wabash has reported for work after a ten days' leave of absence.

Wabash engines 711 and 141 came out of the Springfield shops on Saturday.

Conductor H. F. Harp has been assigned to Conductor A. J. Eberley's car while the latter is off the road for a few days.

Conductor G. Christensen is on caboose 479 while Conductor A. D. Rau-dolph is off of the road.

Conductor W. F. Joy is off of the road for a few days and Conductor J.
Morgan is on caboose 339.

Conductor S. Scott has been assigned to caboose 404 while Conductor S. Bloss is taking a thirty days' leave of absence.
Through, and in and out of Decatur Saturday travel was heavy in all directions.

DOES NOT DISORGANIZE.

Recent Legislation Will Only Prevent the Padding of Local Census.

The bill passed by the recent session of the legislature, the purpose of which was to permit only a state or federal census to be used as a basis to calculate the number of supervisors to which a city is entitled, thereby preventing the use thereof of the too frequently padded local census, will not, as has been widely heralded, disorganize the county boards of the state by reenacting the old law of 1887, under which the term was one year. The matter has been given consideration in the office of the attorney general and an opinion will be shortly forthcoming.
The act to which the census amendment was made was the general law relating to supervisors as amended June 15, 1887, in force July 1, 1887, and which embodies the original one-year term clause.
This clause of the act, however, had been repealed by an act passed June 4, 1889, enacted for the specific purpose of linking the term two years.

It is safe to assume from intimations given out that the attorney general will hold that, inasmuch as it was the manifest intention of the legislature to accomplish only the one object, viz., to prevent the practice of apportioning assistant supervisors on the basis of local census, and to repeal the law of 1889, a specific act fixing the term at two years, and from the further fact that it is the general principle laid down in the text-books and often declared by the supreme court that repeals by implication are not favored, that the law of 1889 is, therefore, not repealed, but remains in full force and effect. This will leave the organization of county boards undisturbed and quiet a vast volume of "knocking" that has obtained largely throughout the state.

Official Route.

The Macon county official train for the Cincinnati convention will leave Decatur over the Vandalia line on Saturday morning, July 6th, at 7:30 a. m., arriving at Cincinnati at 6 p. m. the same day. All Endeavorers who can possibly go are urged to do so. 1st. Because the Convention City is so near and the expense of the trip will be so small. 2nd. Because of the wonderfully fine program and the preparation to entertain all who come on a grand scale.
3rd. Because there will not be another International Convention for two years.

The excursion committee have arranged for a trip to Mammoth Cave—the entire expense being $10; also a trip to the Pan-American for $3.40 the round trip.
Many persons who want to visit in Ohio or Kentucky this summer will find it to their interest to go on this excusion, as the tickets for the return trip may be extended to August 31st. For additional information relative to convention see Miss Harriet J. Brown; relative railroad management see J. C. Millough, traveling passenger agent Van-
